

Get you a second Passport - The second or new Passport can save the lives of you and your family

Freedom to travel. Ability to live, work and study.

Citizenship by Investment Program will grant the applicants and their families immediate citizenship. This means to qualify for a second passport and their incredible popularity among our customers because of international travel opportunities they offer.

The programs for the Caribbean and Vanuatu have over their passports visa-free access to over 100 countries.

In Europe, the programs of Cyprus and Malta do not mean only the citizenship of these countries, but also the associated benefits of European citizenship, ie the ability to work anywhere in Europe to travel and study.

Citizenship by investment programs Caribbean

There are five Caribbean countries that offer citizenship by investment programs, namely Antigua & Barbuda, Dominica, Grenada, St. Kitts and St. Lucia. La Vida is able to process the applications of customers for each program, either by donation or through real estate investments.

These countries are very popular with those looking for a second passport them visa-free travel to more than 100 - allows 140 countries worldwide, including access to the EU's Schengen zone and the United Kingdom. Currently, there are a number of excellent fee reductions from these countries. If you want to benefit from the current low prices, please contact our specialists.

St Kitts & Nevis

St. Kitts citizenship by investment program

The St. Kitts & Nevis Citizenship by Investment Program is the oldest of its kind in the world. The program, founded in 1984 granted qualified applicants for citizenship through donations or real estate investments. The government requires an investment of either a minimum donation of $ 150,000 to the Sustainable Growth Fund (SGF) or an investment of $ 400,000 (can be reduced for affiliated investors $ 200,000) in property plus the related government and due diligence Fees.

The "Citizenship by Investment" program for Antigua and Barbuda provides investors a second passport is available, the visa-free travel to over 150 countries, including the UK, the EU Schengen zone, Hong Kong and Switzerland possible. There are several options for investment in obtaining citizenship in Antigua. Investors can choose to be paid $ 100,000 to the National Development Fund of Antigua. You can $ 1.5m in starting a business to invest ($ 5.0 million for two or more investors) or invest in a program approved by the government real estate project $ 400,000 (can be reduced for affiliated investors $ 200,000).

St. Lucia

St. Lucia citizenship by investment

The Government of St. Lucia has her citizenship introduced by an investment program on January 1, 2016th A qualified investment has the minimum level of investment either meet in the National Management Fund of St. Lucia or in an approved real estate project.

The current minimum investment for donations to the Fund are set at 100,000 USD for a single applicant, 165,000 USD for a couple and 190,000 USD for a family of four. For real estate, the minimum to 300,000 USD is set for the principal applicant. There are governmental, professional and due diligence fees.

Antigua and Barbuda

Citizenship by investing in Antigua and Barbuda

The "Citizenship by Investment" program for Antigua and Barbuda provides investors a second passport is available, the visa-free travel to over 150 countries, including the UK, the EU Schengen zone, Hong Kong and Switzerland possible. There are several options for investment in obtaining citizenship in Antigua. Investors can choose to be paid $ 100,000 to the National Development Fund of Antigua. You can $ 1.5m in starting a business to invest ($ 5.0 million for two or more investors) or invest in a program approved by the government real estate project $ 400,000 (can be reduced for affiliated investors $ 200,000).

Dominica

Dominica Citizenship by Investment

Citizenship by investment in Dominica is available through two options. The first is an economic contribution (donation) to the country under the investor visa program of the government. The second option that has been available since January 2015 is through real estate investments.

Dominica has developed into one of the most affordable and flexible second passport programs that exist. Until 1993 it was not possible to obtain Dominican nationality, without staying in the country. The Dominican government changed this with the program for economic Dominican citizenship, has been dispensed with the need for a residence for obtaining citizenship. Applicants who make such a contribution will receive full citizenship for themselves and their families, making visa-free travel to over 137 countries including the United Kingdom and the EU Schengen zone is possible.

Vanuatu

"Vanuatu Citizenship by Investment" program (Vanuatu citizenship by investment)

Citizenship by investing in Vanuatu is available to applicants who invest in a local development fund from $ 130,000. Vanuatu, a chain of 80 islands in the South Pacific east of Australia, is part of the Commonwealth. The official languages are English and French.

Vanuatu has the only citizenship program of investment in the Asia-Pacific hemisphere. The program offers one of the fastest citizenship and second passport programs that are available to investors. The investment requirement is $ 130,000 for a single applicant and US dollars 180,000 for a family of four plus fees.

Citizenship by investment in the European Union

Freedom to travel. Ability to live, work and study.

Citizenship by Investment Program will grant the applicants and their families immediate citizenship. This means to qualify for a second passport and their incredible popularity among our customers because of international travel opportunities they offer.

In Europe, the programs of Cyprus and Malta do not mean only the citizenship of these countries, but also the associated benefits of European citizenship, ie the ability to work anywhere in Europe to travel and study.

Citizenship by investing Cyprus - European Union

Cyprus offers the fastest and safest path to citizenship of a European country by the Cypriot investment program. It is an investment of 2.0 million euros in real estate required, plus a donation of 75,000 euros to the research and development fund of the government and 75,000 euros to the country's development organization. Cyprus is unique to get in his bid for citizenship within just six months after such investment. In order for a Cypriot passport and citizenship of an EU country be granted, allowing the freedom to work anywhere in the EU, to travel, to study and live, even in countries like Germany, France and the United Kingdom. The investment can be reduced to just € 500,000 after 5 years.

The main attraction for wealthy individuals is the fast citizenship, which is offered for qualified real estate investments. Read more about the program to Cypriot citizenship by investment. Applicants must have a clear criminal record. Applicants for the Cypriot citizenship, there are no language requirements, no medical test and an interview.

For more information: <https://www.go-zypern.com/>

Citizenship by Investment Malta - European Union

The investment program for Maltese citizenship, known as Malta Individual Investor Program (MIIP), is aimed at high net worth individuals. Individual investors need a minimum contribution of € 650,000 paid in the established by the Government National Development Fund, € 150,000 to invest in state-approved financial instruments and commit for at least 5 years at a residence in Malta, either for rent or purchase. The real estate value of purchased real estate must be a minimum amount to € 350,000. For rent a commitment of € 16,000 per year is required. Each family member must also pay into the Development Fund a sum of each € 25,000. The benefits after spending a year are the citizenship and a second passport Maltese.